

The Gift of God's Justice

from the cross
to the lynching tree

from the dirty manger
to the refugee detention center

oppression lurks
on every side

principalities
mark the cards

power brokers
rig the dice

revolutions
fall apart

yet we still believe:
GOD IS JUST

and we trust his holy math we wait upon his reckoning

because GOD IS JUST
and what a precious gift

but it's a gift
that unwraps
slow

and it's a gift
that will not unwrap
on its own
