

“Pray? Who should we pray to? Who?
God? God took all these wonderful people! I just have no hope.”

Pslams 46:1-7,10

God is our refuge and strength
a very present help in trouble.
Therefore we will not fear,
though the earth should change,
though the mountains shake in the heart
of the sea;
though its waters roar and foam,
though the mountains tremble with its tumult. *Selah

There is a river whose streams make glad
the city of God,
the holy habitation of the Most High.
God is in the midst of the city;
it shall not be moved...

The nations are in an uproar, the kingdoms totter...the earth melts.

The LORD of hosts is with us;

“Be still, and know that I am God!”

Psalm 46:4-5 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High. God is in the midst of the city; it shall not be moved...

John 7:38-39.... let the one who believes in me drink. As the scripture has said, ‘Out of the believer’s heart shall flow rivers of living water.’” Now he said this about the Spirit, which believers in him were to receive.”

John 14:27. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.

Phil. 4:7. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Is. 26:3. You will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusts in you.

Rom. 8:19-22. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; for the creation was subjected to futility... in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now...

2Tim. 4:8. ...there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.
