The Good News Revolution

Luke 1:18-25

Zechariah asked the angel, “How can I be sure of this? I am an old man and my wife is well along in years.”

The Good News Revolution

The angel said to him, “I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to tell you this good news.”

The background of the slide features a grayscale image of a statue. The statue has large, feathered wings and its hands are raised in a gesture of praise or prayer. The image is partially obscured by a dark horizontal band containing the text.

And now you will be silent and not able to speak until the day this happens, because you did not believe my words, which will come true at their appointed time.”

The Good News Revolution

Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah and wondering why he stayed so long in the temple. When he came out, he could not speak to them.

The Good News Revolution

They realized he had seen a vision in the temple, for he kept making signs to them but remained unable to speak. When his time of service was completed he returned home.
