

The Shock God

The Shock God

Luke 9:18-27

Once when Jesus was praying in private and his disciples were with him, he asked them, “Who do the crowds say I am?” They replied,

The Shock God

“Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, that one of the prophets of long ago has come back to life.” “But what about you?” he asked.

The Shock God

“Who do you say I am?” Peter answered, “God’s Messiah.” Jesus strictly warned them not to tell this to anyone.

The Shock God

And he said, “The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life.”

The Shock God

Then he said to them all: “Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me. For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me will save it. What good is it for you to gain the whole world, and yet lose or forfeit your very self?

The Shock God

The Shock God

If any of you are ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of you when he comes in his glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

The Shock God

Truly I tell you, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God.”

Luke 9:18-27

The Shock God

[Yahweh] will judge between many peoples, and settle disputes for strong nations far and wide.

They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war anymore.

Micah 4:3

The Shock God

The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and must be killed.
