The Inner Sanctum
Psalm 27:4

One thing I ask from the LORD, this only do I seek: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze on the beauty of the LORD and to seek him in his temple.
2 Corinthians 3:14-18

But their minds were made dull, for to this day the same veil remains [over their minds] when the old covenant is read.
It has not been removed, because only in Christ is it taken away. Even to this day when Moses is read, a veil covers their hearts.
It has not been removed, because only in Christ is it taken away. Even to this day when Moses is read, a veil covers their hearts.
Whenever anyone turns to the Lord, the veil (over the mind/heart) is taken away. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.
And we all, who with unveiled faces behold [in the mind] the Lord’s glory, are being transformed into his image with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

2 Corinthians 3:14-18
2 Corinthians 4:4, 6
The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see [in their minds] the light of the gospel that displays the glory of Christ, who is the image of God....
[By contrast] God who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” has made his light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of God’s glory displayed in the face of Christ.

2 Corinthians 4:4, 6
Jesus I am resting, resting in the joy of what Thou art. I am finding out the greatness of Thy loving heart.
Thou has bid me, gaze upon Thee and They beauty fills my soul. For by Thy transforming power Thou has made me whole.
Oh, how great, Thy loving kindness vaster, broader than the sea.
Oh, how marvelous Thy goodness,
lavished on me.
At the foot of the cross, where grace and suffering meet. You have shown me Your love through the judgment You received. And you’ve won my heart. And you’ve won my heart.
Now I can trade these ashes in for beauty,
and wear forgiveness like a crown
Coming to kiss the feet of mercy,
I lay every burden down.
