TAKING OFF THE HEADPHONES

Luke 12:11-12

When you are brought before synagogues, rulers and authorities, do not worry about how you will defend yourselves or what you will say, for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that time what you should say....

Can I bring the Lord back into my mind-flow every few seconds so that God shall always be in my mind?
I choose to make the rest of my life an experiment in answering this question.

Frank Laubach

I will devote myself exclusively to the duty of the present moment to love you, to fulfill my obligations and to let your will be done.

Jean-Pierre De Cassada

This simple practice requires only a gentle pressure of the will.... It grows easier as the habit becomes fixed. Yet it transforms life into heaven. Everybody takes on a new richness, and all the world seems tinted with glory... the joy which I have within cannot be described.

My set times for prayer are exactly like the rest of the day to me. They are but a continuation of the same exercise of being in God's presence.

Some people have compared [remaining aware of God's presence] to getting out of a dark prison and beginning to live. We still see the same world, yet it is not the same, for it has a new, glorious color and a far deeper meaning.

Frank Laubach

Worries have faded away like ugly clouds and my soul rests in the sunshine of perpetual peace. I can lie down anywhere in this universe bathed around by my own Father's Spirit. The very universe has come to seem so homey!

Frank Laubach

... I now have the mind-bent... to respond to Jesus Christ as a violin responds to the bow of the master.

Every minute can be a fresh.
