the RETURN

Luke 12:35-36

Be dressed ready for service and keep your lamps burning, like servants waiting for their master to return from a wedding banquet, so that when he comes and knocks they can immediately open the door for him.

the RETURN

Luke 12:37

It will be good for those servants whose master finds them watching when he comes. Truly I tell you, he will dress himself to serve, will have them recline at the table and will come and wait on them.

the RETURN

Luke 12:38

It will be good for those servants whose master finds them ready, even if he comes in the middle of the night or toward daybreak.

the RETURN

Luke 12:39-40

But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.

the RETURN

You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.

Luke 12:39-40

the RETURN

Luke 12:41

Peter asked, “Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everyone?”

the RETURN

Luke 12:42

The Lord answered, “Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom the master puts in charge of his servants to give them their food allowance at the proper time?”

the RETURN

Luke 12:43-44

It will be good for that servant whom the master finds doing so when he returns. Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

the RETURN

Luke 12:45-46

But suppose the servant says to himself, 'My master is taking a long time in coming,' and he then begins to beat the other servants, both men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk.

the RETURN

The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of. He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the unbelievers.

Luke 12:45-46

the RETURN

Luke 12:47-48

The servant who knows the master's will and does not get ready or does not do what the master wants will be beaten with many blows.

the RETURN

But the one who does not know and does things deserving punishment will be beaten with few blows. From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded;

the RETURN

and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked.

Luke 12:47-48

Romans 14:10

You, then, why do you judge your brother or sister? Or why do you treat your brother or sister with contempt? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat.

the RETURN

2 Corinthians 5:10

For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that everyone may receive what is due them for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad.

the RETURN

1 Corinthians 3:12-15

If anyone builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw, their work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light.

the RETURN

It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each person's work. If what has been built survives, the builder will receive a reward.

the RETURN

If it is burned up, the builder will suffer loss but yet will be saved – even though only as one escaping through the flames.
