

A black and white photograph of a globe resting on a branch with several leaves. The globe is the central focus, showing continents and oceans. The branch is dark and textured, with several large, light-colored leaves surrounding it. The background is a soft, out-of-focus grey. Overlaid on the top half of the image is the word "REPENT" in large, bold, red, sans-serif capital letters. The letters are semi-transparent, allowing the background image to be seen through them.

Luke 13:1-9

Now there were some present at that time who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. Jesus answered,

REPENT OR PERISH

“Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans because they suffered this way? I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish.

REPENT OR PERISH

Or those eighteen who died when the tower in Siloam fell on them – do you think they were more guilty than all the others living in Jerusalem? I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish.”

REPENT OR PERISH

Then he told this parable: “A man had a fig tree growing in his vineyard, and he went to look for fruit on it but did not find any. So he said to the man who took care of the vineyard,

REPENT OR PERISH

‘For three years now I’ve been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree and haven’t found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?’

REPENT OR PERISH

‘Sir,’ the man replied, ‘leave it alone for one more year, and I’ll dig around it and fertilize it. If it bears fruit next year, fine! If not, then cut it down.’”

...each of you is tempted when you are dragged away by your own evil desire and enticed. Then, after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death. Don't be deceived, my dear brothers and sisters.
