Luke 18:27-30

Peter said to him, “We have left all we had to follow you!” “Truly I tell you,” Jesus said to them, “no one who has left home or wife or brothers or sisters or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God will fail to receive many times as much in this age, and in the age to come, eternal life.”

Mark 10:29-30

“Truly I tell you,” Jesus replied, “no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for me and the gospel will fail to receive a hundred times as much in this present age:

homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields – along with persecutions – and in the age to come,
eternal life.

Mark 10:29-30

Matthew 12:47-50

Someone told him, “Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you.” He replied to him, “Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?”

Pointing to his disciples, he said,
“Here are my mother and my brothers.
For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.”

Matthew 12:47-50

Acts 2:44-45

All the believers were together and had everything in common. They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need. Every day they... broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts...

Acts 4:32-35

All the believers were one in heart and mind. No one claimed that any of their possessions was their own, but they shared everything they had....

And God's grace was so powerfully at work in them all that there were no needy persons among them.

For from time to time those who owned land or houses sold them, brought the money from the sales and put it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to anyone who had need.
