Holding up Your Body

animate | week three

Genesis 3: 1-5

Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God really say, ‘You must not eat from any tree in the garden’?”

The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden, but God did say, ‘You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.’” “You will not certainly die,” the serpent said to the woman.

“For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”
When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it.

Jesus is the Truth (aleithia)

John 14: 6

Jesus answered, “I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

John 8: 32

Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.

Jesus is the Word (John 1: 1) and the Image of God (Colossians 1: 15)

John 1: 18

No one has ever seen God, but the one and only Son, who is himself God and is in closest relationship with the Father, has made him known.

John 14: 9

If you see me, you see the Father. Why then do you ask, “Show us the Father”?

Matthew 11: 27

...no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

Hebrews 1: 1-3

In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets at many times and in various ways, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom also he made the universe.

The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word.
