Good News = Goodness of Suffering?

Luke 22: 39-45

Jesus went out as usual to the Mount of Olives, and his disciples followed him. On reaching the place, he said to them, “Pray that you will not fall into temptation.” He withdrew about a stone’s throw beyond them, knelt down and prayed, “Father, if you are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but yours be done.” An angel from heaven appeared to him and strengthened him.

And being in anguish, he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground. When he rose from prayer and went back to the disciples, he found them asleep, exhausted from sorrow.

Hebrews 5: 7-9

During the days of Jesus' life on earth, he offered up prayers and petitions with fervent cries and tears ...Son though he was, he learned obedience from what he suffered and, once made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him...

Hebrews 12: 2-3

...let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

Hebrews 12: 7

Endure hardship as discipline; God is treating you as his children. For what children are not disciplined by their father?

paideia = to educate, train, nurture,
discipline

Romans 8: 28

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.
