

Luke 23: 26-34

As the soldiers led him away, they seized Simon from Cyrene, who was on his way in from the country, and put the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus.

A large number of people followed him, including women who mourned and wailed for him. Jesus turned and said to them, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep for yourselves and for your children. For the time will come when you will say, ‘Blessed are the childless women, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!’

Then they will say to the mountains, “Fall on us!” and to the hills, “Cover us!””

For if people do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?”

Two other men, both criminals, were also led out with him to be executed. When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him there, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left.

Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.” And they divided up his clothes by casting lots.

Acts 7: 59-60

While they were stoning him, Stephen prayed, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.” Then he fell on his knees and cried out, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.”

“Unforgiveness is like drinking poison and hoping the other person dies.”

Ephesians 4: 26-27

“In your anger do not sin”: Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, and do not give the devil a foothold.

Colossians 3: 13

Forgive as the Lord forgave you.

1 John 2: 2

He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world.

John 3: 19

This is the verdict [krisis]: Light has come into the world, but people loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil.
