God's SHADOW ACTIVITY

COLOSSIANS 2:16-17

Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day. These are a shadow of the things that were to come; the reality, however, is found in Christ.

Let his prayer become sin.

Let his days be few;
and let another take his office.

Let his children be fatherless,
and his wife a widow.

Let his children be continually vagabonds,
and beg.

Let them seek their bread
also out of their desolate places.

Let there be none to extend mercy unto him,
neither let there be any to favor
his fatherless children.

At last — I can honestly voice a Biblical prayer for our president! Look it up — it is word for word! Let us all bow our heads and pray.

Hi. This is me and my shadow.

HEBREWS 10:1

The law is only a shadow of the good things that are coming—not the realities themselves. For this reason it can never, by the same sacrifices repeated endlessly year after year, make perfect those who draw near to worship.

The Law

1 JOHN 4:8
“God is love”

1 JOHN 3:16

This is how we know what love is:
Jesus Christ laid down his life for us.
