II CORINTHIANS 5:7, 13-19

For we live by faith, not by sight.... If we are “out of our mind,” as some say, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. For Christ’s love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.

So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!

For Christ's love compels (synechō) us,

5.

...because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again... if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!

6.

ROMANS 5:18

...just as one trespass resulted in condemnation for all people, so also one righteous act resulted in justification and life for all people.

7.

I CORINTHIANS 15:22

For as in Adam all die,
so in Christ all will be made alive.

8.

...for we walk by faith, not by sight...from now on we regard no one from a worldly (sarx) point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer.

9.

...if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come:
The old has gone, the new is here!

I see Jesus in every human being. I say to myself,
"This is hungry Jesus, I must feed him.
This is sick Jesus. This one has leprosy or gangrene; I must wash him and tend to him."
I serve because I love Jesus.
