WORSHIP =
ascribing worth to God (“worth –shipping”)

ROMANS 12:1

Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship.

ISAIAH 98:4

Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth,
burst into jubilant song with music;

PSALM 47:1

Clap your hands, all you nations; shout to God with cries of joy

PSALM 134:2

Lift up your hands in the sanctuary and praise the Lord.

PSALM 150:4

Praise him with timbrel and dancing, praise
him with the strings and pipe,

PSALM 150:3-4

Praise him with the sounding of the trumpet,
Praise him with the the harp and lyre,
Praise him with timbrel and dancing,
Praise him with the strings and pipe,
Praise him with the the clash of cymbals,
Praise him with resounding cymbals,

By means of the imagination we confine our mind within the mystery on which we meditate, that it may not ramble to and fro, just as we shut up a bird in a cage or tie a hawk by his leash so that he may rest on the hand.
