

PSALM 104:24-26

O Lord, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

Yonder is the sea, great and wide, creeping things innumerable are there, living things both small and great.

There go the ships, and Leviathan that you formed to sport in it.

JOB 7:11-12

Therefore I will not restrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

Am I the Sea, or the Dragon, that you set a guard over me?

JOB 9:16-19

If I summoned him and he answered me, I do not believe that he would listen to my voice. For he crushes me with a tempest, and multiplies my wounds without cause; he will not let me get my breath, but fills me with bitterness. If it is a contest of strength, he is the strong one! If it is a matter of justice, who can summon him?

By his power he stilled the Sea; by his understanding he struck down Rahab. ("the monster of the sea and purveyor of chaos") By his wind the heavens were made fair; his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.

JOB 41:1-34

"Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook, or press down its tongue with a cord?
Can you put a rope in its nose, or pierce its jaw with a hook?
Will it make many supplications to you?
Will it speak soft words to you?
Will it make a covenant with you to be taken as your servant forever?

6.

Will you play with it as with a bird, or will you put it on leash for your girls?
Will traders bargain over it?
Will they divide it up among the merchants?
Can you fill its skin with harpoons, or its head with fishing spears?
Lay hands on it; think of the battle; you will not do it again!

Any hope of capturing it will be disappointed; were not even the gods overwhelmed at the sight of it?

No one is so fierce as to dare to stir it up.

Who can stand before it?

Who can confront it and be safe?

—under the whole heaven, who?

"I will not keep silence concerning its limbs, or its mighty strength, or its splendid frame.

8.

Who can strip off its outer garment?
Who can penetrate its double coat of mail?
Who can open the doors of its face?
There is terror all around its teeth.
Its back is made of shields in rows,
shut up closely as with a seal.
One is so near to another
that no air can come between them.
They are joined one to another;
they clasp each other and cannot be separated.

9

Its sneezes flash forth light,
and its eyes are like the eyelids of the dawn.
From its mouth go flaming torches;
sparks of fire leap out.
Out of its nostrils comes smoke,
as from a boiling pot and burning rushes.
Its breath kindles coals,
and a flame comes out of its mouth.
In its neck abides strength,
and terror dances before it.

10.

The folds of its flesh cling together; it is firmly cast and immovable.

Its heart is as hard as stone, as hard as the lower millstone.

When it raises itself up the gods are afraid; at the crashing they are beside themselves.

Though the sword reaches it, it does not avail, nor does the spear, the dart, or the javelin.

It counts iron as straw,
and bronze as rotten wood.
The arrow cannot make it flee;
slingstones, for it, are turned to chaff.
Clubs are counted as chaff;
it laughs at the rattle of javelins.
Its underparts are like sharp potsherds;
it spreads itself like a threshing sledge
on the mire.

12.

It makes the deep boil like a pot;
it makes the sea like a pot of ointment.

It leaves a shining wake behind it;
one would think the deep to be white-haired.

On earth it has no equal,
a creature without fear.

It surveys everything that is lofty;
it is king over all that are proud."

GENESIS 1:21

So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good.
