PSALM 27:4, 6

One thing I ask from the LORD, this only do I seek:
that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze on the beauty of the LORD and to seek him in his temple....at his tabernacle I will sacrifice with shouts of joy; I will sing and make music to the LORD.

*But the most obvious fact about praise – whether of God or anything – strangely escaped me. I thought of it in terms of compliment, approval, or the giving of honor. I had never noticed that all enjoyment spontaneously overflows into praise.... The world is filled with praise – lovers praising their mistresses, readers their favorite poet, walkers praising the

3.

I think we delight to praise what we enjoy because the praise not merely expresses but completes the enjoyment; it is appointed consummation.

- C.S. Lewis

JAMES 1:7

Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights...
