*Jesus, I surrender my will over to you.
I commit to relating to this person the way you want me to. I confess I can't do this on my own.
So as I learn about how you want me to relate to this person today, will you empower me,
by the Spirit who lives in me, to remember what I learn and to apply this to my relationship to this person?
Amen.*

I have come that they may have life,
and have it to the full.

5.

MATTHEW 5:44-45

I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.

PHILIPPIANS 2:3-4

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others. In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus...

MATTHEW 7:1,3

Do not judge, or you too will be judged. Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye?

- Does the way I speak, act and respond to this person "trigger" them? If so, how can I interact with them differently?

- Does the way I speak, act and respond to this person "trigger" them? If so, how can I interact with them differently?
- Does the way I speak, act and respond to this person communicate my agreement with God about their worth? Do I show them respect?

- Does the way I speak, act and respond to this person "trigger" them? If so, how can I interact with them differently?
- Does the way I speak, act and respond to this person communicate my agreement with God about their worth? Do I show them respect?
- Am I exemplifying the fruit of the Spirit (love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, meekness, gentleness and self-control) in my interactions with this person?

*Jesus, I surrender my will over to you,
and I again commit to relating to this person the way you want me to.*

I ask you to give me the wisdom to know how to apply what I've learned to this relationship, and by the power of the Spirit, I ask that you enable me to live it out.
