LUKE 2:25-32 (NIV)

Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. Moved by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts. When the parents brought in the child, Jesus, to do for him what the custom of the Law required, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying:

Sovereign Lord, as you have promised, you may now dismiss your servant in peace.

For my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the sight of all nations: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and the glory of your people Israel.

HEBREWS 10:11-13 (VOICE)

In the first covenant, every day every officiating priest stands at his post serving, offering over and over those same sacrifices that can never take away sin. But after He stepped up to offer His single sacrifice for sins for all time, He sat down in the position of honor at the right hand of God. Since then, He has been waiting for the day when He rests His feet on His enemies' backs...

JUDE 20-21

You, however, should stand firm in the love of God, constructing a life within the holy faith, praying the Spirit's prayer, as you wait eagerly for the mercy of our Lord Jesus the Anointed, which leads to eternal life.

5.

Our God is faithful to those who hope and trust in his constant love.

We live with hope in the Lord.

6.

We know that we must be vulnerable
with you to fully trust You.

We choose to be vulnerable because
You are our Help and Protector.

7.

We confess that building our lives on anything other than you is foolishness.

We choose to live a life worthy of Your trust, Lord.

8.

Our God saves us from the darkness of the grave and keeps us alive, even during the impossible seasons of our lives.

We are without doubt in You, Lord.

9.

We live with hope in You, Lord, even now as we wait for You.

Let our heart erupt with joy because we trust in Your power and love.
Drench us with your endless love,
even now as we wait for You.
