Got a wife and kids in Baltimore, Jack
I went out for a ride and I never went back
Like a river that don't know where it's flowing
I took a wrong turn and I just kept going

ACTS 17:16, 22-24, 26-28, 32-33

While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was deeply distressed to see that the city was full of idols...Then Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, "Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription:

7.

'To an unknown god.' What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands...

8.

From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us.

9.

For 'In him we live and move and have our being'; as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we too are his offspring.'

10.

I see how extremely religious you are in every way.

Then they said, 'What we're doing is not right. This is a day of Good News and we are keeping it to ourselves.'
