LUKE 6:27-8, 32-33, 35-37, 41-42

But to you who are listening I say: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who are good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do that...

3. [Group] title2

But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. "Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven...."

4. title2

Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take the speck out of your eye,' when you yourself fail to see the plank in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

5. title2

But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back.
Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High...

JOHN 18:33, 36

Pilate went back inside the palace, summoned Jesus and asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?”...

Jesus said, “My kingdom is not of this world. If it were, my servants would fight to prevent my arrest by the Jewish leaders. But now my kingdom is from another place.”

I PETER 2:21, 23

...if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God. To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps...

When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly.

8. title2

May we always remember that our one true President is Jesus Christ and that he alone is deserving of our complete allegiance.

May we never forget that all of our hope, confidence and security about the future is to be anchored in the promise of Christ's coming victory and reign, never in the outcome of this or any other election.

9. title2

May we always remember that we are ambassadors of the kingdom of God who are stationed in a foreign land with an assignment, which is to follow the example of Jesus by manifesting the unique love and beauty of God's kingdom to all people at all times.

May we always remember to place ourselves under people, never over people, as we leave all judgment to God.

10. title2

May we always remember to yield to God's Spirit who empowers us to love without judgment, without distinction, without exception, without reservation, and without any thought of its cost to us.

And may we never forget that we belong to a kingdom that has a center, but no border, that has an "us" without a "them," and that has a Supreme Lover, but no enemy.
