APRIL 27-28

JESUS KITCHEN — Jesus Kitchen serves meals to homeless and traveling youth as they seek peace, love and community at an annual gathering deep in the woods. They provide meals for anywhere from 5,000 to 40,000 people, many who have fallen through the cracks of society and come not only out of physical hunger, but also emotional and spiritual starvation. Through food and fellowship, Jesus Kitchen's main goal is to offer people the belonging, love and peace only Jesus can provide. You can support their team through prayer and through giving to help fund supplies and a storage trailer. The team still has room for more volunteers—stop by the Hello Desk for more information!

It is volunteer appreciation weekend! Thank you to all who have faithfully offered your time and abilities to serve here at Woodland Hills. From assembling bulletins to teaching our kids, from operating video cameras to facilitating discussion groups, from leading singing to serving coffee, volunteers are the secret sauce that make this place run. We we are grateful for each one of you — we could not do this without your help!

IN YOUR OWN WORDS

I have just been introduced to your church and the Anabaptist leaning message and I have found more of my tribe.
