A KING-CENTERED COVENANT

1 SAMUEL 8:4-7, 9

Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, and said to him, “You are old and your sons do not follow in your ways; appoint for us, then, a king to govern us, like other nations.” But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, “Give us a king to govern us.” Samuel prayed to the Lord, and the Lord said to Samuel, “Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from being king over them. Now then, listen to their voice; only—you shall solemnly warn them, and show them the ways of the king who shall reign over them.”

1 SAMUEL 8:19-20

“No!” They said. We want a king over us. Then we will be like all the other nations, with a king to lead us and to go out before us and fight our battles.”

1 SAMUEL 8:7

... it is not you they have rejected, but they have rejected me as their king.

MATTHEW 6:24

No one can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.

2 SAMUEL 7:11-16

Moreover the Lord declares to you that the Lord will make you a house. When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come forth from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.

7. LSS_background-green

He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

8. LSS_background-green

I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. When he commits iniquity, I will punish him with a rod such as mortals use, with blows inflicted by human beings.

9. LSS_background-green

But I will not take my steadfast love from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away from before you. Your house and your kingdom shall be made sure forever before me; your throne shall be established forever.
