

Moving Forward

Gathering Group Discussion Questions

Ice Breaker: Who was your best friend when you were a child?

Question #1: Reflect back on this series.

- What is one thing that has left the most significant impression upon you?
- What does that point mean for your life?

Question #2: In this panel discussion, the theme of being a distinctive Kingdom ambassador was woven through the comments.

- What does it mean to be an ambassador? What are the hallmarks of such a person?
- What might this look like for you as you navigate your social circles?

Question #3: Think about the things that hinder your ability to embrace being a distinctive Kingdom ambassador. This requires honest reflection. We are all dealing with the reality that the love that Jesus offered to all is challenging to emulate.

- What is one thing that hinders you or stands as a roadblock in your path?
- What would it mean for you to trust God with that thing?

Question #4: The panelists talked about the relationship between holding convictions while also being humble. They discussed the importance of resisting evil, but doing so with the love of Christ.

- How is this distinctive from the common patterns of this world?

Question #5: No matter the outcome of the election, our ultimate allegiance is to the Kingdom of God.

- What will it look like to love others if your party does not win?
- Or, if you are discussing this after the voting results have been announced, what does it look like if your party has not won?