Praises and Prayer Requests:

- Pray that Antoine and Ursula would come to know Jesus.
- Praise God for people like Colston who are walking the Camino and leading others into a relationship with the Living God!

Colston praying for Sienna after he blew the shofar. He was traveling with a friend who also blew the shofar. They both are holding their shofars in the picture.

Dear friends and family,

I, Demarick, met Antoine as he came up to the Camino house on his bicycle. He came late in the day and we were out of room for him to stay the night indoors. He was injured so we made an exception and let him stay outside in his tent under a tarp at the back of the property. Antoine shared that he was in his mid-20's and riding from his hometown in Marseille, France all the way to Finisterre, Spain and then back through France to Milan, Italy. Now that's a bike ride. He was funded to film a documentary and therefore, that allowed him to take months to ride his bike across much of western Europe. He had a limited Catholic background, but like many in Europe, he wasn't sure if God existed.

Antoine is very open to spiritual conversations. I asked him questions and he asked me a lot of questions. He's a Truth seeker. I asked him if I could pray for him. I told him I would listen to what I believe God was saying for him and share it as I was praying. God showed me many things about his life - including specifics about his mom, his past and future, and that he was currently writing a book about his journey. He was speechless when I finished praying. He confirmed that everything God revealed was accurate. He had never had a personal encounter with Jesus like he did in that moment. His only response was to ask if he could hug me.

I told Antoine that I'm not psychic, I don't read minds, and I only speak what I see in my mind according to what the Lord is showing me. I told him that God speaks with us for one reason, because He loves us! I shared the good news of Jesus with Antoine. I got his WhatsApp and have been in contact with him since. He has yet to surrender his life to Jesus, but I am believing that God is going to save this young man.

Ursula, like many people to stop at the Camino house, wept when she arrived. The Presence of God's Spirit is so peaceful and healing many people cry when they come to the house. It's so sweet of the Lord. Beth and Ursula shared stories of losing children. Ursula was seeking God and I, Demarick, had the opportunity to share the good news of Jesus with her, give her a Bible, and challenge her to read the bible again as she once had done in Sunday school as a little girl.

Ursula did not want to leave the Camino house as many don't want to. She did nevertheless, leave albeit quite late the next morning. Ursula had a true encounter with the living God and we believe will never be the same.

Colston, a British man, came to the Camino house with his shofar. This guy had taken dozens of pilgrimages so he could share Jesus with people along the way. He had led several people to Jesus in the past month when we met him. He shared his faith everyday. He said that he had experienced several angelic encounters and it was on behalf of unbelievers. The anointing of the Holy Spirit was so strong with Colston. Colston blew his shofar and I have heard a lot of shofar calls before, but his was the most beautiful song I had ever heard from a shofar. Instantly the Holy Spirit hit Sienna in a new way and she began to weep. Sienna is especially sensitive to all things spiritual.

Colston prayed for Sienna and encouraged us all by his prayer for her and for us. I also prayed for Colston and saw the route where God was going to take him next across the world as an evangelist and he confirmed that was the route that the Lord had revealed to him so we were all mutually encouraged that we were walking in the steps the Lord had prepared for us. The next morning, Colston wrote me and had led a teenage guy to Jesus the night before. Amazing!

Thank you for partnering with us to see so much fruit!
