Rescuing the Next Generation

Friends and Family,

As I return to Mexico after a couple of weeks spent reconnecting with friends and family from Living Hope, my heart is overflowing with gratitude. Celebrating 30 years of ministry at our Annual Benefits was a profound reminder of God's work through community in the lives of the children we serve.

Each year, I'm amazed by those who come to witness and connect through the incredible transformations that have taken place. I am genuinely excited to share that we hope to begin building our Mission Headquarters in early 2025, laying the foundation for many new seasons of growth—rescuing children, training leaders, and reaching nations with the gospel.

Susy and I have been reflecting on our mission to impact and rescue the next generation, raising them to fulfill the potential God has placed within them. This is the heart of our work: ensuring that no generation is lost and that every child has the opportunity to transform their future, reach their full potential, and know they are loved by God.

"Being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus." Philippians 1:6 (NIV)

I encourage you to reflect on how God has blessed you and the paths He has opened. Consider how He might be calling you to new steps of faith, growth, and service in the coming year. With the confidence that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion, I trust He will continue to guide and equip you to fulfill His purposes.

Thank you for being a part of this mission. Your support, even for those you may not know personally, is an act of great faith and obedience to God's calling.

As we approach the final months of 2024, we are looking forward to hosting many friends and partners for Legacy Week in Puebla, Mexico, while also preparing to celebrate the holiday season with the children and our Esperanza Viva family. God is already planting visions for our next steps, and we eagerly anticipate how He will lead us. We also pray that, just as Philippians 1:6 assures us, He will guide you in your journey, showing you the steps He has prepared for you in this season and beyond.

May God bless you all,

Jerry and Susy McNally
